Dear Sir / Madam,

SANRAL / [REDACTED]

CASE NO: 22722/16

1. We refer to the above and confirm that your office has yet to convey to us the instruction of your client relating to its pursuit of e-toll debt.
2. We appreciate the fact that the looming appointment of the new members of the National Executive will undoubtedly impact such instructions. Therefore, we kindly request that you endeavour to advise us on your client's instruction(s) as soon as reasonably possible.
3. Having been saturated in uncertainty for a prolonged period, the pending litigation between our respective clients has yielded no prospects of finality, which we consider as prejudicial to all parties involved – inclusive of your client.

4. Furthermore, it is common cause that any time lines previously agreed upon between our offices have become fictional, non-adherence of which is of no legal consequence. Subject to receipt of clarity on the matter, our office remains amenable to the establishment of reasonable timelines in any future engagements.
5. We trust that you find the above in order and look forward to receiving your response.

Yours faithfully,
